ARTICLE VII

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

7.1 A grievance is an alleged violation of the terms of this Agreement and will be handled according to the following steps:

Step 1: Within ten (10) working days after an occurrence or knowledge of an occurrence upon which a grievance is based, the aggrieved employee shall take the matter up at a meeting with their immediate supervisor; the aggrieved may request the presence of the Steward or Chief Steward. If at this meeting the parties have not been able to resolve the matter, the aggrieved employee may submit a written and signed “Statement of Grievance” to their immediate supervisor which shall name the employee, shall identify all the provisions of this Agreement alleged to be violated by reference, and indicate the relief requested. Within five (5) working days following receipt of the “Statement of Grievance”, the supervisor shall submit a written answer to the employee and to the Union upon the grievance form or attached thereto. If the matter is settled at Step 1, the employee and a Union representative shall sign the grievance stating that result.

Step 2: If the matter is not settled at Step 1, the aggrieved employee and the Steward or Chief Steward may appeal the matter to the Director of Physical Plant within five (5) working days next following the submission of the written answer in Step 1. The Director shall submit a written answer to the Steward or Chief Steward within five (5) working days of receipt of the appeal. If the matter is settled at Step 2, the Steward or Chief Steward shall sign the grievance stating that result.

Step 3: If the matter is not settled at Step 2, the Steward or Chief Steward may appeal the matter to the Provost/Executive Vice President and/or the designee within five (5) working days next following the submission of the written answer in Step 2. The Provost/Executive Vice President or designee shall either:

(a) Issue a written disposition within ten (10) working days next following receipt of the written appeal; or

(b) Within the same period of time initiate and hold a meeting with the aggrieved employee, the Steward, Chief Steward and which may include the Union Business agent.

The Provost/Executive Vice President or the designee shall submit a written disposition of the matter within five (5) working days next following the conclusion of the meeting. If the matter is settled at Step 3, the employee and Union representative shall sign stating the results.

Step 4: If the grievance is not settled by any of the above steps, the Union, and not an individual employee, may, within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of the written answer from the Employer, give notice of its intent to submit the grievance to advisory arbitration. In the event the parties cannot agree upon an arbitrator within fourteen (14) working days after receipt of notice of intent to arbitrate, the Michigan Employment Relations Commission shall be requested to provide a list consisting of five (5) arbitrators. The arbitrator shall then be selected from said panel of five (5) names by each deleting in turn one name until only one name remains.

(a) The grievance shall relate solely to the application and interpretation of the terms and conditions of the collective bargaining agreement.

(b) The arbitrator shall have no authority to add to, subtract from, modify, change, alter or amend the terms and conditions of the Agreement.

(c) The advisory recommendation shall not be mandated upon either party.

(d) The fees and expense of the arbitrator and the cost of the place of such hearing as is selected for the hearing by mutual agreement of the parties will be equally divided between the employer and the Union. The parties shall bear individually the cost of presenting their respective case in arbitration.

7.2 Time Limits. Time limits may be extended by the Employer and the Union in writing, then the new dates shall prevail. Any grievance not advanced to the next step within the time limit within that step by the Union shall be deemed abandoned and not subject to further appeal.

Any written answer required to be submitted by the Employer or its agent in this grievance procedure which is not rendered within the time limits herein designated, shall automatically subject the grievance to consideration at the next higher step and should be so processed by the Union, unless it notifies the employee of an intent to dismiss.

7.3 Duties of Stewards. It is recognized that Stewards have full-time work to perform and, therefore, working time spent in the investigation and processing of a grievance shall be held to a minimum. In such cases the Steward or Chief Steward will obtain the permission of ~~his~~ their foreperson to leave their work, which permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. Upon completion of the Union business the employee shall report back to their foreperson and such time shall be noted on their card as Union time.

7.4 For the purpose of this Article, working days are considered to be Monday through Friday, excluding holidays.

ARTICLE VIII

SENIORITY

8.1 Employees shall be regarded as probationary employees until completion of 90 calendar days of employment from the date of hire for maintenance and grounds and 90 calendar days of employment for custodial employees. Upon completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be retroactive to the date of hire, and the employees shall be considered permanently appointed for the purpose of this collective bargaining agreement and for placement upon the seniority list. A probationary employee may be discharged or laid off without any obligation of reemployment and there shall be no recourse to the grievance procedure.

8.2 Seniority shall be defined as the length of service with the Employer, within the bargaining unit, commencing with the last date of hire since the employee's termination pursuant to Section 9.1.

Each employee shall be responsible for having their proper address on record with the Employer.
- (e) If the employee for any reason, other than sick leave or leave of absence granted by the Employer is off the active payroll for a period of twelve (12) months or the length of their seniority, whichever is the lesser, unless otherwise provided for in this Agreement;
- (f) Failure to report for work at the expiration of a leave of absence; or paid at the same rate in a lateral classification or at the highest rate paid for a lower classification provided that the new rate is not higher than the old rate, or at the rate closest to but not lower than the current rate of pay for a higher classification.

(f) The above procedures are subject to the condition that in the Employer's judgment, those employees remaining subsequent to the layoff, or those employees who exercise displacement rights are qualified to perform the available work.

(g) Employees on layoff or leave of absence shall continue on the medical insurance program for the two months following the month of layoff or leave of absence, provided they continue the employee's premium, co-pay portion, following the month of layoff or leave of absence, but thereafter it shall be the responsibility of the employee, if they desires, to make arrangements for continuation of the insurance at their expense.

10.2 Recall. In order to facilitate the recall procedure, recalls will be in inverse order of layoff, and the following will apply:

(a) The Employer will notify the employee of recall, however, it is the employee's responsibility to notify the Employer of their intention to return to work and the date which they will report. The employee will have three (3) working days from the notice of recall to contact and to notify the Employer accordingly.

(b) When employees are recalled, they will be returned to their permanent classifications in order of their bargaining unit seniority with the high senior employees who hold the permanent classification recalled first, and before any other employee with less bargaining unit seniority is recalled or returned to that permanent classification.

(1) There is an employee with higher bargaining unit seniority working in the laid-off employee's permanent classification.

(2) If, during recall, an employee refuses to accept the available lateral or lower classifications, they will be deemed to have terminated their employment voluntarily.

ARTICLE XI

Such transfers shall not exceed ninety (90) calendar days at any one time except for transfers made to cover for leaves of absence. If a transfer is to a higher rated job for more than one (1) working day, the employee shall receive the higher rate of pay. There shall be no reduction in pay if the transfer is to a lower paying job. This Article shall not be used to avoid the posting and bidding procedure under Article XII.

11.2 If a temporary transfer is for three (3) work days or less, the Employer has the right to select the employee who shall transfer without regard to seniority, so long as the selection is made for a reason which is not arbitrary or capricious. If a temporary transfer shall be for over three (3) work days, the Employer shall offer the transfer to qualified employees on the basis of seniority. In the event that qualified employees decline the temporary transfer, the least senior qualified employee shall accept the transfer.

11.3 The Employer reserves the right to hire temporary employees to fill in for leaves of absence for fixed periods of time. Notice of any temporary hires and the fixed period of time, if known, shall be sent, in writing, to the Unit President no later than three (3) working days after the start of the first shift worked by the temporary employee(s). Such temporary hires shall not come under the terms of this Agreement provided that the terms of this Agreement are not exceeded.

For employees working the second shift the standard workday shall consist of eight (8) hours with one-half hour paid meal period.

13.3 The third shift shall begin between 8:00 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. The shift premium for the third shift shall be thirty-five cents (35¢) per hour (applicable to any shift starting after 1:00 p.m.). For employees working the third shift the standard workday shall consist of eight (8) hours with one-half hour paid meal period.

13.4 The standard workweek shall consist of five (5) consecutive days, Monday through Friday, inclusive. A standard work week of Tuesday through Saturday, inclusive, and Sunday through Thursday, inclusive may be established by the Employer to meet weekend requirements. The Tuesday through Saturday workweek shall apply to a maximum of three (3) employees and shall not displace any shift, Monday through Any shift which regularly commences on a holiday shall have the hours on such shift considered as time worked on the holiday. Two (2) times the employee's regular straight-time hourly rate shall be paid for all hours worked on Sunday unless Sunday hours are part of the employee's regularly scheduled shift.

14.4 If as a result of a shift change by the Employer, a full-time employee is denied an opportunity to work a forty (40) hour week, they shall be paid for forty (40) hours minus any legitimate deductions they incurs.

14.5 Overtime Procedure

(a) Any bargaining unit member, qualified for the posted overtime, desiring the opportunity to work overtime shall fill out an “Overtime Add/Remove Request Form.” The two-part form will be given to the supervisor and shift steward. When added, the employee will be placed on the bottom of the current overtime roster by adding one (1) hour to the highest hourly total. The overtime roster will be posted in a designated location. When voluntarily removing your name from the roster, you must remain off the list for thirty (30) days.

(b) Acceptance or refusal of overtime will be made from this roster by noon on Wednesday. You are encouraged to sign up for overtime even if you are not on the top of the list. If you do not sign by Wednesday at noon, you will be charged as refusing all available overtime. Accordingly, if an overtime assignment is accepted by someone with lower posted hours than you, they will get that overtime.

(c) Overtime opportunities will be filled on a basis of least accumulated overtime hours down the list to most accumulated overtime hours.

(d) Any employee on the overtime roster may accept or refuse any or all of the overtime opportunity available to them. You will be charged according to 14.5g.

(e) In the event no employee on the roster accepts the available overtime, the employer may go off the roster to find a volunteer from current bargaining unit members. If no employee in the unit accepts the available overtime, then the employee with the least amount of accumulated hours on the overtime roster must either accept the overtime or remove themselves from the overtime roster for thirty (30) days. In the event the roster is depleted, the least senior unit employee must take the assignment(s).

(f) Employees who accept to work overtime will be expected to work those hours to the same extent as a regular workday and the rules applicable to their regularly-scheduled shift.

(g) Each employee will be charged for all overtime accepted (hours worked) and refused (hours posted) based on the availability to that member.

1. In the case of overlapping overtime hours either in the same building or separate buildings, the employee who refuses both will be charged for the lesser amount (hours posted).

2. Employees will be charged at the rate of one and one-half (1.5) hours for each hour of overtime accepted (worked) or refused (posted) for Saturdays and two (2) hours for each overtime hour accepted (worked) or refused (posted) on a Sunday or Holiday.

3. Employees will not be charged for any overtime of one (1) hour or less.

(h) It is the employee's responsibility to check on overtime availability. Employees who are absent for any reason will be charged as refusing the overtime opportunity available to them.

1. An employee, after an absence, who returns to work after noon on Wednesday, will not be allowed to bump another employee from their accepted overtime hours and will be charged as refusing those hours which would have been available to them.

2. If the absent employee returns to work prior to noon on Wednesday, they may accept any overtime availability with respect to their accumulated hours on the overtime roster.

3. When all employees' hours on the overtime roster exceed one hundred (100), one hundred will be subtracted from everyone's hours.

14.6 Scheduled Overtime (more than 48 hours notice).

(a) All scheduled overtime (minimum of three hours) will be posted by the employer on the weekly overtime roster in the designated location by noon on Monday. The overtime policy of 14.5 applies. A copy of the prior week's overtime, with calculations, will be posted under the current week's availability.

14.7 Unscheduled overtime (after noon on Wednesday).

(a) Unscheduled overtime will be first offered to those employees on the overtime roster (least hours down to most hours). No one will be charged if they accept or refuse unscheduled overtime.

(b) If no one on the overtime roster accepts the overtime, the employer may go off the roster and offer the overtime to any bargaining unit member (from highest seniority to lowest seniority). In the event no one accepts the overtime, the least senior employee on the roster must take the assignment.

14.8 If an employee is called in to work for hours outside of and not contiguous with their regularly scheduled shift, they shall receive a minimum of three (3) hours pay at time and one-half the employee's regular straight time rate. If the hours are contiguous/carry over to their regularly scheduled shift, the employee shall be paid at their regular straight time rate for such call-in hours and will be permitted to leave early on that shift (up to the amount of time of their call-in) if leaving does not interfere with normal operations.

ARTICLE XV

MEAL PERIODS

15.1 An employee shall be entitled to a one-half hour paid meal period during their regularly scheduled shift of eight (8) or more hours.

15.2 An employee who is required to work continuously beyond their regularly scheduled shift shall be entitled to the following:

(a) A thirty (30) minute paid meal period if they are to work more than four (4) hours beyond their regular shift.

(b) A fifteen (15) minute paid break if they are to work more than two (2) hours beyond their regular shift. The break time includes time spent in leaving and returning to the work station.

15.3 An employee called in for overtime work shall be entitled to one-half hour paid meal period upon completion of each four (4) hours of continuous work, if said employee is required to work beyond the meal break.

ARTICLE XVI

Paid Time Off (PTO)

16.1 Paid Time Off (PTO)

PTO will be granted each year, prospectively for use from the first full pay in the fiscal year and last pay of the fiscal year. The fiscal year is July 1 through June 30, and will be given to an employee based on years of service reached by July 1 of the new fiscal year.

PTO is in place to allow an employee the flexibility, autonomy and responsibility to use paid time off as they determine appropriate for their personal circumstances. It is designed to be used for vacation, sick leave and/or personal appointments an employee must attend to during work hours. Except for cases of legitimate unexpected illness or emergencies, PTO requires prior approval by the employee's supervisor. Provide as much notice as possible when submitting a request for time off.

16.2 Paid Time Off (PTO) Expectations

- (a) A full-time employee's PTO may be used in one (1) hour increments up to a full day (based on the employee's scheduled work hours) of pay computed at the employee's regular straight time hourly rate for each full day of time off taken. A part-time employee's PTO may be used in one (1) hour increments up to their work time not to exceed an eight (8) hour day. For example, if a part-time employee normally works a six (6) hour shift they may take up to six (6) hours of PTO time for that day.
- (b) Full-time employees are eligible to take PTO after ninety (90) days of employment, and part-time employees may take it after one hundred eighty days (180) of employment.

TUITION POOL DISTRIBUTION PROCEDURES

The Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollar ($2,500) annual tuition pool as defined in Article XXVIII, 28.9(c), will be distributed as follows. Each eligible employee will be reimbursed for dependents (as defined in Article XXVIII, 28.9(c)) based on the following formula:

Step One:

Total number of dependent's credits for the academic year x in-district tuition

- Dollar amount of scholarships received

- Dollar amount of grants received

- Cost of any course in which less than a "C" was earned

= $\frac{\text{Total number of dependent's credits for the academic year x in-district tuition} - \text{Dollar amount of scholarships received} - \text{Dollar amount of grants received} - \text{Cost of any course in which less than a "C" was earned}}{\text{Total number of dependent's credits for the academic year}}$ x in-district tuition
= Each dependent's qualified dollar amount for reimbursement

Step Two:

Add all dependent's qualified dollar amounts (from Step One).

If the total amount is equal to or less than the applicable annual pool listed in Section 28.9(c), the procedure continues at Step Five and an eligible employees shall receive reimbursement for their dependent equal to that amount calculated in Step One. If the total amount is greater than the applicable annual pool listed in Section 28.9(c), the procedure continues through Steps Three, Four and Five.

Step Three:

Each dependent's qualified dollar amount (from Step One) divided by the total of all dependents' qualified dollar amounts (from Step Two) x 100.

= Dependent's percentage of tuition pool (Note: Step Three will be repeated for each dependent to calculate each dependent's individual percentage.)

Step Four:

Each dependent's percentage x the applicable annual pool listed in Section 28.9(c).

= Dollar amount to be reimbursed to the Union employee.

Step Five

The Custodial Maintenance Unit will be responsible for compiling a list of names and dollar amounts due each member. The list shall be verified through the Financial Aid Office. Reimbursement shall be issued by the College per the terms of Article XXVIII, 28.9(c).
